The vendor fee for the 2012 season is $60. Guest vendors will be asked to pay $10 per market until they reach the $60 limit. This helps us to share the cost of $400 blanket liability insurance for the market, signage, marketing, Union Chamber of Commerce dues, and other incidentals.

 Vendors wishing to sell meat, cheese, milk, prepared/value added foods must meet and comply with all appropriate state and federal laws, hold valid and current licensing, permits, and insurance, and provide the Union Farmers' Market with copies of those permits prior to the first market.*
